Donalds And Lee County Sheriff's Office Co-Host Personal Safety Workshop In Fort Myers

FORT MYERS, Fla. – Yesterday, the Office of Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL), in collaboration with the Lee County Sheriff's Office, co-hosted a free, personal safety workshop at the Fort Myers Regional Library.

Attendees were informed of key safety issues affecting residents of the Southwest Florida region and proactive measures that can be taken to ensure self-protection in various scenarios.

The third installment of the Office of Congressman Byron Donalds Community Workshop Summer Series, entitled "Spotting Scams," will take place on Monday, July 28th at the Bonita Springs Library from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM.
