Donalds Co-Leads Legislation To Cement The Department Of Government Efficiency Into Law

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) is co-leading historic legislation offered by Rep. Cory Mills (R-FL) to cement the creation of President Trump's Department of Government Efficiency into federal law.

H.R. 2006 – "The Department of Government Efficiency Act" is the 88th piece of legislation supported by Congressman Donalds during the 119th Congress and also received the support of Representatives Aaron Bean (R-FL), Barry Moore (R-AL), Mike Rulli (R-OH), Victoria Spartz (R-IN), Darrell Issa (R-CA), and Mary Miller (R-IL). Congressman Donalds released the following statement:

"$2 trillion annual deficits, $36 trillion in debt, and the Washington Swamp wants to continue to grow—enough is enough. We're taking our country back, we're putting the American people first again, and under President Trump, the Department of Government Efficiency is doing just that. Now more than ever, it's critical that we codify this consequential endeavor into federal law. I am proud to co-lead H.R. 2006 alongside Congressman Cory Mills to eliminate the waste, fraud, and abuse plaguing our government once and for all."
