ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Story with Martha MacCallum

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Story with Martha MacCallum on Fox News Channel to discuss the passing of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act and the exceptional leadership of President Trump.

Watch the full interview here or below:

This was a team effort between the President and both chambers of Congress:

"Well look, I was apart of a lot of these conversations and yeah, the President came in very focused on the details of the legislation... What a lot of colleagues saw yesterday was President Trump leading the Republican Conference to make sure that we delivered on all of the promises from last year's election. We were able to do that. His leadership, especially these last 36 hours, has been tremendous."

Reception of the bill in the state of Florida:

"It's been very positive. Look, people in Florida, they want to see America succeed. We have great leadership with Governor DeSantis and his team in Florida. Until Donald Trump came back, we were lacking leadership up here in Washington. We have that."
