ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Balance With Eric Bolling

WASHINGTON – Last night, Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Balance With Eric Bolling on Newsmax to discuss terror threats against the United States reaching an all-time-high, and recent comments from Rep. Pramila Jayapal (D-WA) calling for a "balanced approach" to the rape and targeted violence perpetuated against innocent Israeli women by Hamas terrorists.

Joe Biden is 'The Master of Disaster':

"My thoughts are, I'm not really surprised. Joe Biden is 'The Master of Disaster.' I've been calling him this now for a couple of months...Foreign policy, a disaster. Border security, nonexistent, complete disaster. Inflation through the roof crippling Americans, disaster. Nothing he has touched has worked out well. It's all been bad. So, of course the threat levels are all around us are rising. Our enemies are on the move, we've allowed people to come into this country who are on the terrorist watchlist, because they say they've caught eighty-three, which means there's others that they did not catch. And now it's not just the Southern border, it's also the Northern border where people are coming into our country. America is not secured. Our allies are not secured...This kind of turmoil is brought to us by the 'Master of Disaster' himself, Joe Biden, and the radical staffers in the White House, and Democrats on Capitol Hill."

You have to call evil, evil, and you must hold it accountable:

"First of all, what Pramila Jayapal said, I mean that's outrageous. What do you mean let's not talk about it too much? You have women who were just living their lives in Israel, they were raped, repeatedly. Pelvises were broken. Children taken out of their womb. This stuff is barbaric. And for the Democrats to not hold Hamas accountable, because they want to have this 'Two State Solution,' or they are so blinded, that they want to continue to blame Israel for everything is part of the reason why we're seeing all the threats around us. You have to call evil, evil, and you must hold it accountable. You can't have half measures. And the Democrats love to lecture everybody when it comes to these minor incidents that suit their political agenda, but when it's in the face of true barbarism, true horror, true evil, they will never hold it accountable, because quite frankly, they need those people to support them, in order for them to keep political power."
