ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Julie Mason Show

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Julie Mason Show on SiriusXM POTUS to discuss Bill and Hillary Clinton's refusal to testify in the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee.

Watch the full interview here or below:

"I think the House is going to hold them in criminal contempt and we're going to send that over to the Department of Justice":

"I think the House is going to hold them in criminal contempt and we're going to send that over to the Department of Justice. The Oversight Committee, right before we left last week, we voted, and it was bipartisan, actually. I think there were four Democrats on the Oversight Committee who voted to hold Bill and Hillary Clinton in criminal contempt. So, I think when that measure comes to the House floor, it should come to the House floor when we get back to D.C. next week. I anticipate that's going to pass the House of Representatives in a bipartisan fashion and go over. And look, Bill and Hillary, they did it to themselves. All they had to do was show up and plead the Fifth. It was a transcribed interview. They could have come in and pled the Fifth, and we would have been upset about it, but that's their right under the Constitution. But they didn't do that. They're trying to play cute. They're trying to negotiate when they get to come in because what they're trying to hope for is that Republicans lose the House, and then if Democrats take over, they'll sweep this under the rug and just everybody will forget that it ever happened."
