ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Ingraham Angle

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Ingraham Angle on Fox News Channel to discuss the commonsense conservative policies under the Trump administration and the consequences of the Democratic agenda.

Watch the full interview here or below:

"The agenda of President Trump, that is what puts parents first. That is what puts the American people first":

"But one thing is clear, the agenda of President Trump, that is what puts parents first. That is what puts the American people first. It's common sense. It's conservative policy. It's what allows people to flourish and build the American dream, no matter where they are. It's like the President said two nights ago. They're [Democrats] just crazy. And they've taken this stance where they think that crazy is going to lead them to success and it's not true. More and more Americans are seeing the reality of Democrat policy. They just want common sense. They want to embrace America."
