ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Charlie Kirk Show

WASHINGTON – Yesterday, Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Charlie Kirk Show on Real America's Voice to discuss updates in the investigation into Biden family corruption and the ongoing battle over FISA reauthorization.

Watch the full interview here.

There should be no clean reauthorizations of FISA:

"There should be no clean reauthorizations of FISA in the National Defense Authorization Act. That should be removed immediately. I completely disagree with House leadership on that. That should not occur. But look, we do have enemies across the globe. We see it. Man, Joe Biden is a terrible President. His weakness has only emboldened our enemies. There is some importance with respect to national security for being able to collect that surveillance on foreign operatives, but the American people's First Amendment rights, Fourth Amendment rights, must be protected at all costs. So, the reforms in FISA are needed. The Judiciary bill does that. If you have people like Andy Biggs, Jim Jordan, in agreement, and frankly with some of the Progressive members on Capitol Hill, who actually are concerned about spying on the American people. I mean, you gotta give it to them, they got one thing right. They're concerned about it. We should follow that bill, completely reform FISA, give the intelligence community the ability to collect assets and information on foreign operatives trying to do damage to our country, but you have to hold accountable these bureaucrats who are spying on the American people. The Judiciary bill does that."

We're going to hold our impeachment inquiry vote:

"So, what we're going to do this week is that we are going to have the vote on the floor, I think Wednesday, for the impeachment inquiry, and this is important because we have three DOJ officials and one White House official who are ignoring Congressional subpoenas. I mean Charlie look, take a step back. If you had three DOJ officials and a White House official under President Trump, ignoring Congressional subpoenas, the world would be over, the media would lose their minds. It's happening under Joe Biden, the media says nothing. And so, what we are going to do is we're going to hold our impeachment inquiry vote. We have brought significant amounts of information to all of our members for review. We believe that vote is going to pass this week. So you are going to have a formal impeachment inquiry of the House. It is going to allow us to enforce these subpoenas, and then we are going to get the final information that we need."
