ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Ingraham Angle

WASHINGTON – Last night, Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Ingraham Angle on Fox News Channel to discuss the Senate's failed amnesty deal and the disastrous results of President Biden's weakness on the world stage.

Watch the full interview here.

We have a president that doesn't take this seriously:

"Listen, we've lost four embassies under Joe Biden. The Middle East is on fire because of Joe Biden. We lost thirteen men and women in Kabul, in Afghanistan, more than two years ago because of Joe Biden. His weakness is a stench throughout our entire country and it's being seen on the world stage. We are not respected. We are not the leader around the globe anymore, and it's because we have a president that doesn't take this seriously."

Most of all, securing our own nation restores our standing:

"What's going to restore our standing is the Trump sanctions on Iran—putting them back in a box. What restores our standing is not watching Houthis in Yemen blow-up and target shipping vessels, when we have a responsibility to maintain global security with respect to shipping and commerce. That restores our standing and most of all, securing our own nation restores our standing, because it demonstrates to the drug cartels and everybody else that America...is going to take its problems seriously, and we will help our friends around the globe as well."
