ICYMI: Donalds Joins Kudlow

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined Kudlow on Fox Business Network to discuss breaking news regarding U.S. airstrikes in the Middle East and the Senate's amnesty deal.

You have to cut them off economically:

“The number one way to deal with the Iranians if you don't want to step on their soil, is you have to cut them off economically. Donald Trump had them cut off economically. He had them really having to scrap things together for that economy and then they couldn't put money into these proxy fighters throughout the Middle East. That's what causing so much of the problem. These strikes should have occurred later that same day when our servicemembers were killed, and look we've got to be honest, some of these targets were already understood by the Pentagon. The question wasn't: Were we going to respond? The real question was: Was Joe Biden going to get himself together, and get focused on America's security, in order to respond quickly and decisively? That is the core problem here and the weakness that they have shown with respect to Iran has really empowered them in the region. The economic sanctions are critical if we're going to put them back in a box.”

You cannot do 5,000 entrants a day:

"What was released about a week or so ago, about the headline number...5,000 a week is just outrageous. That's 150,000 immigrants into the country per month. That's 1,800,000 per year. I mean, where are you going to stick all of these additional people. Denver, Colorado is overrun. Boston, Massachusetts is overrun. Chicago overrun. New York, you see the mess going on there—overrun. You can't put much more people into the United States the way the Biden administration has done. It's a terrible deal and I know our Republican Senate colleagues tried to negotiate in good faith, but when you see just the idiocy coming from the Democrats, you've got to get up from the table, walk away, and say, 'Just follow the House's lead and pass H.R. 2 because we're done with you, because you're not being serious.' You cannot do 5,000 entrants a day, Larry. Even Jeh Johnson under Barack Obama said if you do 1,000 a day, it's a crisis.”
