ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Will Cain Show

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Will Cain Show with Guest Host Lawrence Jones on Fox News Channel to discuss President Trump's visit to the Federal Reserve, lowering interest rates, and the deposition of Ron Klain—former President Biden's White House Chief of Staff.

Watch the full interview here or below:

"They [Democrats] will subvert the will of the voter if it means they get to keep power":

"That's what they [Democrats] do. When the Democrats are caught red-handed, it's time to move on... But look what we've uncovered, Joe Biden was not running the country. That is crystal clear. Now we know that Barack Obama actually ordered a new intelligence report based upon fake information to draw conclusion that the Russians interfered on behalf of Donald Trump. That was a lie, that is now proven, but they [Democrats] want to move on and want to deflect and dissemble. We knew that the laptop from hell was real, but they [Democrats] wanted to lie and ignore it and move on. Time and time again, the Democrats have proven they do not believe in transparency with the American people. They [Democrats] do not believe in the will of the American voter - they will subvert the will of the voter if it means they get to keep power."

"The President is correct, we gotta get interest rates down in this country":

"One of the things that will help interest rates, long-term interest rates, in this country come down is if we cut spending so that the Treasury Department doesn't have to keep going to the bond market and looking for new money... Capitol Hill has to do their job, the Fed has to do their job, but the President [Trump] is correct, we gotta get interest rates down in this country. It's the number one thing that will impact affordability for the American people."
