ICYMI: Donalds Joins The Chris Salcedo Show

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined The Chris Salcedo Show on Newsmax TV to discuss the Senate Parliamentarian Elizabeth MacDonough, recent increase in spending by our NATO members, and the NYC mayoral race.

Watch the full interview here or below:

NATO members paying their fair share:

"Look how much things have changed when you have real leadership that's focused on putting the American people first. There was a time, a decade ago, when if you even talked about the NATO countries putting up more money, you were laughed out of the room. Now they're stepping up and doing something actually good for European security and they're now starting to flip the bill - pay the bills. This is a great thing, major win in the hat of President Trump. "

The Senate parliamentarian and the OBBB:

"A lot of these spending cut provisions are being gutted by the Senate parliamentarian and I know that everyone at home is saying, "Wait, who's the Senate parliamentarian and what election did she win?" The truth is, she's an employee of the Senate - been there for a very long time... Let's actually let the elected members do their job of setting up how the budget is going to be reworked here in Washington, D.C."
