ICYMI: Donalds Joins Fox Across America With Jimmy Failla

WASHINGTON – Congressman Byron Donalds (R-FL) joined Fox Across America With Jimmy Failla on Fox News Radio to discuss the resignation of Harvard President Claudine Gay, the ongoing crisis at the border, the weaponization of America's legal system against President Donald Trump, and the radicalization of Democratic party leaders.

Watch the full interview here.

They are scared:

"For eighty years in this country they have been working through the Democrat party, working through colleges, working through media, working through all these different aspects of our country trying to gain control. And somewhere...between you know Hillary Clinton and COVID-19, they found the way for this magic elixir to gain control of everything. And then people looked at it and said, 'Oh this sucks, we do not like this. Can we get rid of this?' And so, they are scared...This is their entire agenda. They've been working on this stuff for multiple decades in the country, and there's a real risk that it can all just be snuffed out because Donald Trump is just better at this job than Joe Biden was."

This is a very dangerous thing that these radicals are doing:

"And I think their desperation, what's really dangerous is that their desperation really threatens the republic. It threatens democracy, because you're trying to remove your chief political opponent. Well then, what's to stop you from doing it to somebody else? Once you kind of burn that boat, then it's easier to do it a second time. This is a very dangerous thing that these radicals are doing. And that's why there's disagreements among Democrats over this strategy. You know that's why like the Chief Judge in Colorado went against the other four justices on his court and they're all Democrats. He's like, 'Yeah man, I don't like Trump but this is crazy.'"
